Deputy Group CEO, Raffles Family Office

William Chow is Deputy Group CEO at Raffles Family Office (RFO), a pan-Asian financial advisory firm focused on addressing the wealth growth and preservation needs of ultra-high net worth individuals.

William is based at RFO's headquarters in Hong Kong and tasked with ensuring the multi-family office continues capitalising on rising demand for independent wealth management services in Asia and beyond. He was also appointed to RFO's Board of Management and Investment Committee, to which his wide-ranging experience will be key to informing the company's future development and service expansion plans.

William joins Raffles Family Office from China Life Franklin Asset Management, where he was Deputy CEO and helped oversee the company's US$35 billion in assets under management. He also chaired its Risk Management Committee and was a member of its Investment Committee and Board of Management.

Prior to this, William was a Group Managing Director at Value Partners Group, one of Asia's largest asset managers and the first to be listed on the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. Whilst there, he headed the firm's ETF and Quantitative Investment businesses. He was also a member of its Executive Committee.

William additionally brings an extensive portfolio management background with him comprised of senior roles at UBS, BlackRock and State Street Global Advisors, where he oversaw the Tracker Fund of Hong Kong (SEHK: 2800) among others.

William holds a Master's degree in Science in Operational Research from the London School of Economics and Political Science, and a Bachelor's degree in Engineering (Hons) in Civil Engineering from University College London in the UK.
