

Chris Chong

Group President, South & South East Asia and Oceania,
LVMH Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton

Mr Chris Chong is the LVMH Group President for South, South East Asia and Oceania. In this role, he oversees and coordinates the business activities of the LVMH Group in these regions, across the more than 75 Maisons.

Prior to this, he was the Chief Executive Officer, Retail and Workspace at CapitaLand Investment, a global real estate investment manager with a strong Asia foothold listed in Singapore. He oversaw the business development, asset management as well as the commercial management platforms of CapitaLand Investment. He was on the boards of ION Orchard and Jewel Changi Airport, as well as the Senior Leadership Council of CapitaLand Investment. He also served on the OTIS International Advisory Committee, the Singapore Fair Tenancy Industry Committee (FTIC) and the Future Economy Council (FEC).

Chris holds a Master in Information Networking from Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh USA, an Engineering degree from a French Grande Ecole and a Master in Financial Management from French business school ESSEC. He has been a Certified Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA) since 2010. Chris continues to be active in the Singapore French Alumni Association and currently holds the position of Vice-President.

Chris is proficient in English, Mandarin and French.